

SOMETHING NEW on NASSAU: SATURDAY WORSHIP

PRINCETON, NJ: The community at Princeton United Methodist Church will launch a new Saturday evening worship gathering with the hope that the time and type of service will meet the needs of a new generation of worship-goers. The first Saturday Evening Worship Gathering will be September 17 at 5 p.m. at the church, located at Nassau & Vandeventer in Princeton.

“Just as Sunday morning is not always a viable option, the traditional style of worship doesn’t work for everyone,” says Rev. Jana Purkis-Brash, senior pastor. The Gatherings will be in the room adjoining the sanctuary, which has a door opening onto Nassau Street. “If you hear music as you wander down Nassau, come in and join us. We will praise and experience God through contemporary music, and hearing and responding to the message.”

Parking is free on weekends at the Princeton University lot off of Williams Street, behind Thomas Sweet. Everyone is welcome to attend; following the service, there will be a time for refreshments and fellowship.

Two traditional Sunday services, at 9:30 and 11 a.m., resume September 18, and Sunday School for all ages is at 9:30. Child care is available all morning. PUMC is a diverse congregation whose members come from many surrounding communities, backgrounds and faiths. For information call 609-924-2613 or www.princetonumc.org.
